

Terms & Conditions Of GrowyourB

Effective Date: 25th Sep 2025

Company Name: GrowYourB

1. Project Initiation & Payments

- Once the UI/UX design is accepted by the Client, a 50% advance payment is required to start the project.
- The remaining balance must be paid upon completion, prior to final delivery or website launch.

2. UI/UX Design Approval & Changes

- Once the Client has confirmed and approved the UI design, no further design changes will be made after the site goes live.
- If the Client requests additional design changes after approval, extra charges will apply based on the scope of work.

3. Content & Deadlines

- Each project will have a mutually agreed deadline.
- The Client must provide all required content, text, images, and details before the deadline.
- If the Client fails to deliver the necessary content on time, GrowYourB reserves the right to pause the project and continue only after completing other scheduled projects.

4. Website Validity & Maintenance

- Each website developed and delivered by GrowYourB is valid for 1 year from the date of launch.
- After 1 year, the Client must pay a yearly maintenance fee to continue receiving support, updates, bug fixes, and technical assistance.
- If the Client fails to renew the yearly maintenance, GrowYourB is not responsible for downtime, errors, or outdated functionality.

5. Intellectual Property

- Final project ownership will be transferred to the Client upon full payment.
- GrowYourB reserves the right to showcase completed projects in our portfolio and marketing materials.

6. Liability & Warranty

- GrowYourB will ensure the website functions as per the agreed specifications at the time of delivery.
- We are not responsible for delays caused by third-party services, hosting, or client-side delays.

7. Termination

- If the Client terminates the project before completion, the advance payment will not be refunded.
- If GrowYourB terminates the agreement, 50% of the advance payment will be refunded, and no further claims can be made by the Client.
